REVIVING the BULLDOG

It's hard to determine
when exactly it started
But our mascot it seems
had all but departed.

Our spirit for him
had almost died,
But we'll not forget him
he's still on our side!

Attention it seems
would boost his survival,
So the theme of the '79 Arena
is the Bulldog revival!

The 1979 Arena pays a special tribute to our high school mascot who has served us faithfully since 1926. The yearbook staff felt that the lack of attention given to the bulldog had contributed to the diminishing school spirit in recent years. We centered the entire '79 Arena around the Bulldog with the theme being the "Bulldog Revival." We would like to give special thanks to Kevin Morgan for the creative bulldogs he designed for us.

"There were over fifty participants. It was the largest turnout we've ever had. Parents and alumni were even involved," said Corwin Croy, the outdoor education teacher.

Mr. Croy won in the faculty division, Danny Williams won in the student ironside division, Stuart Pullins won in the student scope division, Steve Jewell won first in the open rifle division, and Mr. David Cain won in the open pistol division.

YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU

The play, You Can't Take It With You revolves around the Sycamore family: Penny and Paul, their daughters, Alice and Essie, Essie's husband, Ed, and Penny's father, Martin Vanderhof.

Mr. Vanderhof, Grampa, is a vivacious old man with a definite mind of his own, and is not afraid to let everyone know it. He collects snakes as a hobby and likes to go to college graduation ceremonies.

His whole family is a little eccentric. His daughter, Penny, writes plays, many of which have no endings. Paul Sycamore makes fireworks in the basement of the house with his assistant, Mr. DePinna. Essie takes ballet lessons from a huge hairy, Russian man, Kolenkhov, while her husband, Ed plays the xylophone.

Alice, the younger daughter, is the only sane member of the household. She holds a regular job as a secretary with a Wall Street executive, Mr. Kirby. Alice is presently dating Mr. Kirby's son, Tony, the vice president of his father's company.

Alice and Tony intend to be married, but many problems arise when Mr. and Mrs. Kirby, who had been invited to the Sycamore house, arrive on the wrong evening. Even worse, during the turbulent evening with the Kirbys, a raid is made on the house by government officials in search of Mr. Sycamore's dynamite.

Alice decides that a marriage between the two totally different families would be impossible, and she makes plans to take a vacation in the mountains to give herself a chance to think clearly. However, she is convinced to stay when she realizes how much Tony loves her.

The play ends with them, again planning to be married.

V.I.P.

The V.I.P. Volunteers were very busy this year. They worked as volunteers every Monday night at the Athens Mental Health Center and every Saturday at the Gallapolis State Institute. In addition, they held a Dance-a-Thon in November to raise money for the Epilepsy Association, helped set up a new halfway house on Morris Avenue, served as tutors for the educated mentally retarded in our school system, held a Handicap Awareness Day, and attended the National Student Council for Exceptional Children's Convention in May. They also held a number of dances, sleepovers, and parties at the two institutions.

CHEERLEADERS

The cheerleaders this year did an outstanding job. The Varsity squad took part in three contests. They captured first place in the Ohio University Cheerleading Competition, first place in the Paint Valley Invitational, and second place in the Large Varsity division of the Ohio State Cheerleading Competition. In addition to this, they were busy selling "spirit towels" and buttons to keep us rowdie and help us to cheer our teams on to victory. With five seniors on the squad, there will be big shoes to fill next year.

Despite the fact that each player began the season with intermediate or better skills, their season was plagued by inconsistency. However, it improved as the tournament approached. The team finished the season with a final record of 6 wins and 7 losses.

Hard work and improvement characterized the '78 Reserve Volleyball season. Eight of the eleven girls on the team had not played competitive volleyball before. This inexperience compounded with beginning skill levels challenged each of the girls to improve. As the season progressed, each of them improved tremendously so that toward the end of the season they were playing team volleyball. The final record for the reserve team was 0-12.

CROSS COUNTRY

The hard work and dedication put out by the cross country teams really paid off this year because both were represented at the state competition. Mark Mathewson was there from the varsity team and Becky Dorrill was there from the girls/guys open team. The 42-21 record of the varsity team placed them 2nd in the SEOAL. The girls/guys open team captured first in their division this year.

Brian Lawson was the winner of the SEOAL individual medalist trophy for his play in the SEOAL Tournament. Craig Goldsberry was named Most Improved and Most Valuable player for the season. Jim Hensler served as the team's captain.

The reserve team finished their season with an excellent 10-1 record. Randy Nogrady held the best season average of 44.1.

The AHS Boy's Soccer team went varsity this year for the first time. The '78 team, coached by Mr. T. J. Hahn, was very young and inexperienced. They lacked some of the basic skills necessary for competition. This caused their season record to be slanted a bit toward the losing side. However, a final win, lose, tie record does not give justice to the time, sweat and effort put into any athletic event. And so it was with the soccer team. Their record may not have been impressive but the team's effort certainly was.

The Athens High School basketball team had an exceptional year in 1979. The seniors on the team were: Art Chonko (voted first team all SEOAL, first team all district, special mention all state, first team all Messenger area team) Mike Daily, J. K. Smith, Brian Black, Gary Bentley (second team all SEOAL, second team all district, first team all Messenger area team, honorable mention all state) Rodney Hart, Spencer Edwards. The rest of the roster consisted of: Mike Bruning, David Matthews (honorable mention all SEOAL, first team all Messenger area team) Allen Meyer, Fred Ross, Randy Sabo, Scott Burson.

The record was an excellent one, 14-4 overall, 11-3 in the league. The coaches' personal feelings were, "The three team losses (two in overtime, one on a last second shot) were tough, but each time the team was able to pull together and continue to play well."

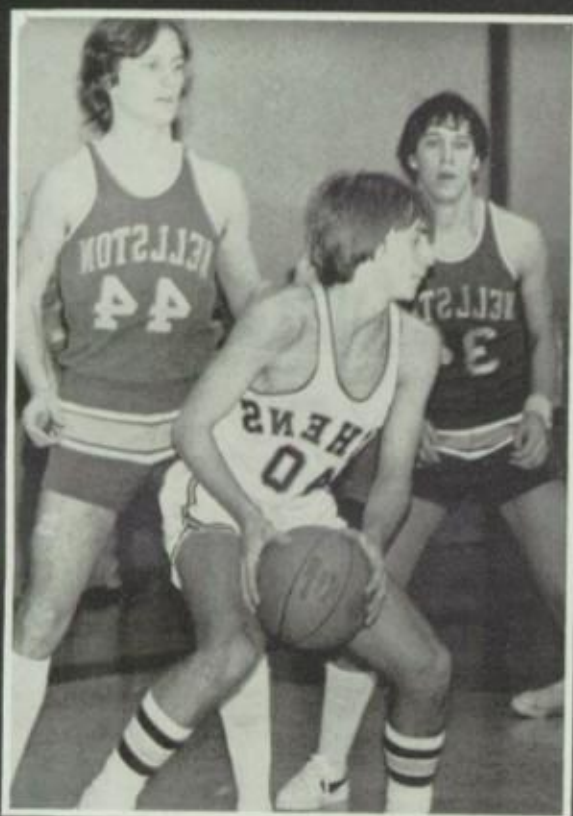

R E S E R V E

The Reserve basketball team like all the other basketball teams had a 12-6 record which included wins over Marietta and Lancaster which had not been done for a long time.

The team's strong points were shooting and an aggressive defense which included a strong fullcourt press. They finished third in the league.

The Athens High School Freshman Basketball team had a successful year with a 10-6 record. The starting six were Kevin Schwartzel, Todd Nuzum, Brent Henry, Matt Stenson, Mike Croci, and Dan West.

The team's strong points were a lot of teamwork and much cooperation on the court. It was, however, a short team.

The Theme of J-Prom this year was "An Evening in the Far East." Couples entered into a Japanese flower garden and walked down an elaborately decorated hallway, through a spectacular dragon's head onto the dance floor.

Here the mood changed to sparkling streamers and flashing lights. A beautiful mural of lights was on the window picturing a dragon and a Japanese girl.

J-Prom 79 was the first time the gym lobby was utilized for the refreshments and conversation.

The thanks goes to the Junior class. They decorated the dance on the Friday night before. Jim Lee and Stefan Maier worked diligently to finish the dragon head; which served as an entrance way. Anu Shanker was in charge of the food. Also we owe a big Thanks to the junior class advisors Miss Harden and Mr. Dishong, for helping to make J-Prom a success and a night to remember.

- 1▶ Times nearing to an end.
- 2▶ To enter into the far east you go through the dragon's jaws of love. (Thanks to Jim and Stefan for designing the dragon. Also thanks to Kay, Brent and Anna for working on the pomps.)
- 3▶ Dancing the night away
- 4▶ Happiness is being at J-Prom

KISA FRUM 1960-1978

One of the hardest things we face is death,
 our loved ones go without another breath.
 They are led away,
 taken by the hand
 To a strange new world
 of an unknown land.
 For them it is glorious and really fine,
 but for us that are left, it is just a matter of time.
 We cry and we grieve,
 for those that are taken.
 But this is where
 we are all, mistaken.
 We should be happy,
 they're with the one we love.
 We should think of the time,
 when we'll meet them above.
 We should go on living as before,
 not trying to forget but loving them more.

SENIOR NIGHT

Senior Night is the night of the last home football game. On this special night, football players, cheerleaders, and senior band members are honored for their outstanding performances in the past four years.

This year Senior Night was on Friday, November 3, 1978. Unfortunately the Bulldogs lost to Columbus St. Charles. But all in all it was a very festive evening.

SENIOR FOLLIES

This year Senior Follies was a lot of fun, but it took a lot of cooperation and hard work from the seniors to get the follies presentable. In order to get them that way the Senior Class would like to thank Mrs. Fuller and especially Mr. Lulich for his hours of help, we couldn't have done it without him. Some of the comments after the follies from Seniors were that they wished they could have done this at the beginning of the year because they had made so many new friends, they wished they could have met a long time ago.
